HELEN BADGLEY & LELAND BENHAM in "MILESTONES OF LIFE" FOUR-ACT MUTUAL MASTERPIECE MADE BY THAMHOUSER

Maintains a "Nursery" For Her Score of Dolls, One From Little Japanese Admirer. Helen Badgley, who, although only seven years old, enjoys a distinct reputation as a screen player and who appears in the cast of "Milestones of Life," a four part Mutual Masterpiece produced at the Thamhouser studios, has an entire room in her home in New Rochelle, New York, devoted entirely to a "nursery" for her dolls.

Dolls came a letter in Japanese, which, when translated, stated that the writer had seen Helen in several photo plays and was forwarding the doll in appreciation of her work. Needless to say, Helen replied stating that if she ever came to visit the new world to be sure and include the Thamhouser studios in her itinerary. Still another doll, filled with sawdust and wearing the simplest of dresses, is a prize possession of the little screen star. It was presented to her by a crippled inmate of a children's hospital in New York City.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY MAY BE REQUIRED TO PROSECUTE HIMSELF

Joseph K. Starr and Thomas Kelly Have Failed to File Election Expenses

Where the district attorney is himself a violator of the law Secretary of State Oleott appeals to the Attorney General this much is decided, but in case it is referred back to the district attorney for action will he be obliged to prosecute himself? This is the question that has been puzzling Mr. Oleott. The case came up in Wheeler county where a special re-election was held August 16 of this year and the question of whether or not Joseph K. Starr should be recalled as district attorney was submitted to the voters. At that election Thomas R. Kelly, of Fossil, was a candidate for the office of district attorney in addition to Mr. Starr who was a candidate to succeed himself.

Appropriate blanks for rendering election expense accounts were forwarded by the office of the secretary of state to both candidates and their attention directed to the requirements of the law. On September 3 a statement of election expenses was filed by Mr. Kelly but it was returned as it was not accompanied by the proper receipted vouchers and to date has not been received by the secretary of state as required. No statement whatever has been received from Mr. Starr. The law directs that the secretary shall notify the district attorney in the district where the alleged violations have occurred in case such violations exist but as one of the violators is the district attorney himself, Mr. Oleott was obliged to appeal for legal aid. It is entirely possible that District Attorney Starr, who, by the way, was retained in office, would be entirely willing to prosecute Kelly but whether he would take the same view of the matter in relation to himself is a matter of conjecture.

Prisoner Rearrested As He Is Released From Pen

When James Curtis stepped out of the state fair yesterday with his discharge papers and a five dollar gold piece in the pocket of a brand new suit of clothes he had visions of unlimited freedom but these visions were nipped in the bud by Sheriff William Esch, who met Curtis at the door of the prison and served a bench warrant on him charging him with an unnatural crime alleged to have been committed within the prison walls. Curtis was sent up from Multnomah county November 15, 1914, to serve one year for assault with a dangerous weapon. He was indicted on the present allegation by the July grand jury and a bench warrant was issued for his arrest July 2 by Judge Percy R. Kelly. When Curtis was confronted by Sheriff Esch he was a much surprised man as he had no indication that the charges against him would be taken up. He protested vigorously but of no avail and was taken to the county jail where he will be held until the grand jury meets if he is bound over, in justice court where he will be given a hearing within a day or two.

FIRST DEGREE MURDER

Chelalis, Wash., Sept. 16.—For the first time since Washington became a state, a verdict of first degree murder has been rendered in Lewis county. It is against J. H. Spangler, merchant of Vader, accused of shooting his wife in their confectionary store, August 13, while he was intoxicated.

Foreign Buying Booms Northwest Apple Market

Portland, Ore., Sept. 16.—Recent heavy apple sales in the local market are said today to have been due to foreign buying, Australia alone having sent orders, accompanied by cash, for 800 carloads. It has also developed that agents of England and France were purchasers of heavy supplies of the fruit in northwest markets during the past two weeks, which had been credited to eastern accounts.

greater equity in the grant than $8,000,000; that its receipts from sales, leases, etc., amount to over $5,000,000 leaving a balance due of less than $3,000,000; that if the prevailing rate of assessment and taxation had been applied to said equity of $8,000,000 during the year 1872 to 1915 its tax payments would have equaled if not exceeded the amount it claims it has paid to date; that the administration expense the company claims to have incurred was of its own making and can be properly charged against its equity in the lands. These facts, however, should not stand in the way of the state making liberal allowances to the company should negotiations be entered into with a view of purchasing the grant.

"In conclusion let me suggest that whatever plan may be submitted to you by the governor of our state should receive your most careful consideration. Chosen by the people as chief executive and by virtue of his office, chairman of the state land board, his hands should be upheld and he should be given every opportunity to advance those policies which in his opinion will make for the best interests of our people."

The afternoon session began in the same even tone and the expected clog in the smoothly running wheels of the machine failed to develop up to a late hour this afternoon. The night session will begin at 8 p. m. and the session tomorrow forenoon will begin at 10 o'clock.

HE WAS ONLY TWENTY-ONE San Francisco, Sept. 16.—"A woman is as old as she looks, and a man is as old as he feels," quoth sixty-year-old David A. Hulse, wealthy rug importer, as he unflinchingly told the marriage license clerk he was 21, and his forty-year-old prospective bride eighteen.

The picturization of "The Puppet Crown," which is presented by Jesse L. Lasky with Ina Claire as the star and Carlyle Blackwell as the leading man, is a romance pure and simple. The events take place in a mythical kingdom, but are of course almost realistic in detail and elaborate in setting. It is a sheer delight to get away from the routine of daily life and enjoy such a production as this, which is to be seen on Saturday at the Grand.

GREATER VIOLATION OF LABOR LAW HAS THE LESSER PENALTY

Penalty For Working Employee 60 Hours a Week Less Than for 54 Hours

It developed in a recent trial for violation of the state labor laws that the greater offense carried the lesser penalty and was also a cheaper procedure according to the report brought back to this city by State Labor Commissioner Hoff, who returned from Portland last night. Mr. Hoff caused the arrest of J. B. Neubauer last Saturday for working Mrs. C. P. Arklund more than 54 hours in one week in the kitchen of Neubauer's delicatessen shop. The charge was that the woman was allowed to work more than 54 hours which violates the ruling of the welfare commission and requires that the violator be brought before the grand jury and the case tried out in the circuit court before a jury.

The state law, however, allows 60 hours and for working the employee more than 60 hours the violator may be tried in justice court at considerably less expense to the state without being indicted by a grand jury. When the case was explained it appears that Mrs. Arklund and another employee exchanged work without the knowledge of their employer and though he was technically guilty and entered this plea, the case was of little importance and not enough to warrant taking before the grand jury. As a result Mr. Neubauer pleaded guilty to working his employee more than 60 hours and the case required by about 15 minutes in the justice court to receive the plea of guilty and set the fine which was suspended.

An attempt was made at the last session of the legislature to make the ruling of the legislature to make the ruling of the welfare commission and the state law concurrent in action so that an employer might be tried in justice court for a charge of violating the welfare commission's ruling, but the bill was killed in the senate in the haste to rush through the last days of the session.
